Article description

The Einhell TC-SR 18 Li BT - Solo cordless speaker makes it easy to connect up to all Bluetooth-enabled devices such as smart phones or tablets. In addition, the speaker has an AUX connection for connecting MP3 player or smart phones, plus an USB connection for charging a smart phone, tablet or MP3 player. An intuitive control panel makes it easy to use. As a member of the Power-X-Change series, all the high-quality lithium-ion rechargeable batteries from the system series can be used in combination with the cordless speaker. This product comes without a battery and charger which are available separately, for example as a practical starter set.
